

TIRED OF BEING COOPED UP? READY TO GET OUTSIDE? IS IT TIME TO TRY SOMETHING NEW?

Change your routine, your mindset, and step outside.
Head to the wilderness paradise we call home, Denali!

Is Introducing:

DENALI ADVENTURE RETREATS

A series of retreats that combine learning, growing, and experiencing with backcountry adventures. For all ages, creative types, and experiences levels.

- A three-night two-day nature experience
- Limited to 12 participants.
- No experience needed & supplies included.
- Bring a spirit of adventure while you explore and connect with nature.

The first in the series is:

“Nature journaling and the backcountry with Sarah Crowley”

Sarah is the artist behind Raining Joy Arts. She has lived in Denali over 10 years working as an artist, educator, and tour guide. Her passion is combining art with her love of nature and the backcountry especially through nature journaling. She hopes her art background, art, and love of nature will inspire you to go out and experience and enjoy the natural world wherever you live!

Nature journaling is the practice of drawing or writing in response to nature.

People of all ages find joy, calm, and fun in creating nature journals. This weekend is for those that want to capture the moment (a sunset, a view, a critter, a flower...) and recall observations which would otherwise be forgotten. The entries in your journal can give you inspiration, clarity, and focus...the opportunities to journal are endless!

This fun, relaxing practice helps you connect more closely with nature, your surroundings, and yourself. This weekend will be exhilarating, challenging, and you will create your own unique nature journal.

We guarantee opportunities for those seeking adventure to connect, experience, and grow in nature.
